Dancing with the Stars - New cast (fall 2007)

Announced this morning on GMA..

Here is a link to the GMA website. I couldn't get an article yet.. But you can click on the newsitem and it will bring up a slideshow type display of the new cast.

Apparently TMZ was way off base on a number of them... (which I think is a good thing... TMZ pushes itself as being an inside authority on things..)

Among some surprises is Jane Seymour and Marie Osmond will be on the cast. Other names that I recognized (because of my age I suppose! :woohoo: ) was Wayne Newton.. My gosh has that guy had alot of plastic surgery.

I think the new season debuts around the 24th or 27th of Sept.

My favorites before I see them dance are Wayne Newton, (?)Mathison from All My Children and of course, Marie Osmond. I can't believe Marie is doing this. I mean she is definitely not the 105 pound girl who danced and ice skated on the Donny & Marie show in the 70's. LOL.

I bet she is doing this in order to lose weight. She is always bringing up her weight issues. Every contestant who does that show says they drop the weight like crazy because you are dancing so many hours per day in practice. I hope she knows what she got herself into. It makes my feet hurt just thinking about it.

It's funny Jane Seymore is also on there. I have heard Donny Osmond say many times that when he was a teenager, Jane Seymore was his dream girl and he had a big crush on her. Funny how things turn out.

I like Marie as well. She really has come a long way since her depression. She is also in the middle of getting a divorce after a long seperation from her husband. (About time) ... so this may be a way to break out of the shell- so to speak. She also knows how to stand on her own too feet and push back if need be. She also has a wonderful support system.. her brothers- all 8 of them.

I also like Jane Seymour. She just has this classy air about her.

I hope Marie's brothers come to the audience to support her. I'll be keeping my eye out for Donny! Still love him.

That's a good question. LOL. I like all of them, but Donny has always been my favorite.

I admit I had a school girl crush on him too!

I think it was called 'Puppy Love! LOL

I think he is one of the few child stars who seemingly has kept his head on straight! That in itself is quite admirable.. and adds to his charm and charisma!

I saw an interview of Marie last week along with her new dance partner. She looked great! She said she had been working on weight loss and apparently it has worked. She looks like she may have lost over 20 pounds. She was very upbeat and said she was quite happy.

She joked about being on the show and said that her kids couldn't figure out how she could be on there. They asked her if she was a star. LOL.
