Lindsay Lohan once again.

I thought this article was interesting.

<http://www.clevelandleader.com/node/2619>

It reports that Lindsay failed a drug test in the rehab center, threw a fit at the staff for requiring her to take one, has been put on strict warning to shape up or else. Other violations include having sex in the bathrooms with other patients and refusing to do any chores.

I think I'm speechless.

Let's see, she just turned 21... At the rate she's going, I expect that she will be one of those sad stories we talk about when she is found dead of an overdose.. Or cracks up a car and kills herself in the process or God forbid some innocent victims..

I didn't read the article.. and I don't know if it's true or someone's attempt to sell a paper or make a buck..

Lindsey is this week's Paris... I try not to get too wrapped up in their escapades.. The coverage on Britney is a constant drone at this point.. I wish they'd stop covering these 'bad girls'..

Why should they when people like us talk about it?

It would be so nice if one could learn from others' experiences, however, in Lindsay Lohan's case my concern is more for innocent victims than for her... she has had so many opportunities and seems intent on flushing them down the toilet. Shame on her... if these articles are true...
