Synchronicity

What do you think about Synchronicity and Clairvoyance? They are kinda alike but different. I'm not sure just how.

I'm a very normal person, I think. However, over the years I have had very odd things occur, sometimes in dreams I have and other times just intuition. I won't go into the details of them here, but they are documented cases that I dreamt of actual things that happened.

Anyway, last Thursday night I dreamt about a former boss I had over 10 years ago. I haven't seen him in at least 5 years. The next day I went to lunch with a colleague and good friend who also worked for this former boss when I did. I brought up the dream and discussed our time there at that law office and I brought up a little disagreement the office had with our boss, salaries and a new employee. We laughed about it and that was that.

One hour later I was in my office and this former boss calls me out of the blue! I can't believe it. He chats and we catch up and then HE mentions the little thing my friend and I had about salaries and the new employee!!! I told my friend about it and her jaw just dropped. She was in awe. How crazy is this?

I think I have posted here before that I do think I have some uncanny ability to pick up things.

Have any of you had this happen to you? It's really strange. What are the odds of something like that happening, especially when it happens over and over?

I don't really know Debby. I've definitely felt the typical de ja vu when seeing someplace that looks identical to another.....or meeting someone really familiar. But nothing more than that! Hmmm.....interesting to ponder.

I understand what you are talking about. This has happened to me from time to time thought out my life. Sometime it scares at times. I have learned to deal with this but it seems to happen less often the older I get. Good luck

I think I'm going to write a book. Seriously. I have thought about it for a long time. I'm not sure if I have much time to devote, but, I figure that if I write a page a day, in a couple of years, I should have something. LOL>
I'll let you know how that goes.
