Love the new layout!!

Good Job Tara.....keep up the good work!

It's so good to be able to read somewhere where people arn't bashing out others and have a place to state what is on your mind, and to help others in need!!

Thank-you so much!!

Happy Holidays to all

I cannot put my finger on it, but I like the old format better.

I can't figure ou why the regular reply buttons put a message in the Guidelines area. I think that's a glitch.

Why does a new window open every time I click on one of the latest posts links? This is very "busy" and I feel like I have to search to find what I am looking for on the post. This board also has always had a lot more ads than any other board. But you are making changes and hopefully that will help you get some members

Desire,

I can't for the life of me figure out why you still come to SOT. Most of your posts are quite negative and insulting. Why are you wasting your time here complaining when you could be somewhere else that you actually get something positive from?

Mazzy was negative and yet you didn't jump on her.....why is that? I thought you wanted feedback. Considering you have literally less than ten regular posters, maybe you should be nicer. And I do go to a very positive board and there are a few ex-posters of SOT there.
I guess I keep thinking that one day I will pop in and there will be an active board again. Silly me. And when is chat time?
Have you decided yet?

I haven't been here in awhile... Like the new look.. just need to get use to the changes.. I do have a question.

How do I find out who has recently posted in a topic and who's online??? Guess it's going to take a bit..

:unsure:

The new layout looks good. I saw it before went on my holiday break, but didn't get a chance to comment on it. It will take me a little while to get used to all of it, but change is good. Good idea, Tara.

Hey what's the karma thing about? How come some ppl have a number (+ or -) and some don't?

TIA! ;-)
