Yuck...that's what I feel after spending a little time catching up on the live feed posts. I have to say this may be the very first season of bb ever that I don't watch.

I'm just a little turned off by the "sex fest" they seem to be pushing on us. Big Brother has always kind of had that element but it never seemed to be shoved down your throat the way this one appears to be shaping up.

I'll give it a little more time but I'm not holding out much hope for this season.

They chose a really "interesting" group.

I read the feeds that they have just to find out what is going on.....and to see who is on POV.....I really need to stop because it ruins the show for me!!

It is a different bunch of people!! It is interesting to have "couples" working together.

8pm tonight.

The show was ok tonight. It might not be as bad as I feared. I don't know though...I'm still going to give it a chance.

I'd like to see Ryan playing without Jen in there....I kind of like him. There's not too many that I do like so far though.

Does Shiela remind anyone else of Nicole from BB2? OMG, I cannot stand that woman....either of them..lol

I think they should make Jen and Ryan go home...they (Jen) couldn't keep the secret!! And let Parker and Allison be partners!!

I know that won't happen, its a solution!!

Guess we find out tonight!!

I also would like to see Ryan stay. Jen could be a person who gets under my skin!! That makes TV!!

Sure was a show tonight huh?

I think Josh is a very emotionally charged person. After the near breakdown when Neil left and this outburst. I'm not so sure if I was trapped in a house with Amanda I wouldn't lose it either, but that Dad comment was way below the belt.

I'm sorry to see Parker go, but I doubt I'll miss Jen much. Wonder how long it will take Allison to try to turn up the heat with Ryan? I don't trust that girl.

What a night in the BB house. Amanda and Allison both taken out because of medial emergencies. Amanda apparently passed out, low blood sugar or some sort of seizure..not sure which. Allison out because of some type of allergic reaction.

I hope they will both be ok. Wonder what will happen to the "couples" now.

...And then when they got back from the hosptial they were all "huggy" and how sorry they are!

That is why I have always taught my boys to be careful of what you say.....You can't take words back!!

Oh the drama!!:side:

And I predict by midnight tonight the sparks will start flying. Joshua is going to let that power go right to his head. From what I've read he's already went off on Allison.

I wonder what's going to happen next week. Speculation is they will let the couples who have been evicted (including that night's couple) compete so that ONE person can go back into the house and then they will break them up and they will all play as single.

They edit that show so much to make ppl appear as they are not. It's amazing!

I'm very glad that both Jen and Allison were okay.I was very glad it helped to bring the house together.

Unfortunately Cid it was only temporary. Within a few hours all houseguests were back to their normal lying, backstabbing, and gossip. But hey, that's Big Brother!
