Announcing The ADHD Strategy Series

For parents of children with ADHD - Educators - Family Members

Join this virtual learning event - hosted by Dr. Rory Stern. This 6-week, 12 speaker series is all about providing the necessary information about ADHD to the people who need the most. There will be a heavy focus on providing strategies that you can implement today and rely on over the long-term.

It all starts Monday, May 19th, 2008. Registration is now open for this FREE event. All calls will take place on Monday and Wednesday evenings at 8:30 PM EDT - with a 24 hour replay line available over the Internet.

Featured Guest Speakers:

Tara McGillicuddy
Evelyn Polk-Green
Linda Anderson
David Giwerc
And many more...

Each guest will get in-depth on one topic and provide strategies that you can count over and over again!

Don't miss this event!

Has anybody signed up for this? I just signed up for the free thing but was offered a chance to upgrade and get mp3 files. I want to know if it's worth the money.
