YES!! I have caught the show when it came on!! It sure does have alot reflecting on the late 70's!! My son, who is 18, watched part of it and stated to me how crazy we were back then!! I told him not to worry....we as parents feel the same way about them (out kids)!!

I cant remember all the names right now, I just wonder if the 2 ladies who where neighbors will ever get the friendship back.

It seems like it's going to be a good drama show.....then they will probably take if off the air!! That is what I hate about getting into new shows!!

Haven't watched. And, not going to. Too much illicit sex on TV.

I really didn't think I was going to like Swingtown and just started watching it because of all the promotion. I've really gotten into it and have been pleasantly surprised by it.

This is NOT a show for the younger people!! I personally like it. I'm tired of the teen shows where they show all the teens having sex, having babies, quitting school, etc.....
It's time for "Grown-Up" shows!! Plus it's on later on Friday nights.....

Personally I give it an A+
