
LORI HACKING---R.I.P.

Posted by halfdollar - 2004/08/04 20:34

I have been keeping up with the disappearance of the Salt Lake City woman. They have charged her husband with aggravated murder & possibly another murder if they find the body & discover she was 5-wks-pregnant as stated. I prayed for her discovery. I now pray for both families for Strength, Love, & Peace. It's such a tragedy. God bless all of them.

I can't believe all the new information everyday that comes out. It reminds me too much of the Lori Petersen trial right now going on. I still think there is more to this case then what is being said. I heard too that Mark worked in Psych ward and who knows what he learned. I know it is really sad that two families are now destroyed and several lives forever changed by what is going on.

I heard today he also has an ALIAS. The newscaster named his name but I didn't catch it. More of that will come out, and no telling what else.

That's why the Families need Our Prayers Girls. I can't imagine being part of any of that. God bless all of you, too, & Pray we will never have to deal with anything of that nature.

Peace.

LORI HACKING:

Her Family held a Memorial Service for her.

No, a body has not been recovered. This will help the Family & Many Friends & Co-Workers grief for her & move on, with no hopes of ever finding her. I pray they can begin to possibly heal and find some way to find Forgiveness.

My heart goes out with terrible pain for both families.

Peace Out!

God bless the child...

I have not heard of this case. But then they do not show all the cases here in Canada

I can not imagine the not knowing of where your child is, no matter how old, or if you will ever know.

When my cousin was murdered in July that was all I could think about!
The WHY and WHO had done this to a man we all loved.

Even when the man was caught, it still leaves an empty hole in your heart.

Now his family has to go through the court case to hear why their son was so viciously beaten, and left for dead in a parking lot.

So too just imagine her family not even knowing where her body is has to be a nightmare.

I will keep this family and all families of vicious crimes in my prayers for peace of heart and soul.

The Family/Families are the ones doing The OPRAH Show...

The two families do talk to each other. They are the ones coming forth & choosing NOT to keep silent!

I last posted on this topic on 9/11.

The remains of Lori Hacking have been found in the same landfill they suspected her body to be. Thanks goes out to the many crews who had such perseverance to carry through until the intended task was finished. God bless them.

God bless Lori's Family & Loved Ones that they may know this part of the tragedy is finished.

"She once was LOST but now she's found."

Again, Rest In Peace Lori and May some comfort come to the Family.

they identified her body today by dental records. I wonder if mark will have a trial or not? who knows I think her family will have the closure it needs.

I took something from a Hymn out of context and want to affirm that!

In "Amazing Grace" are the words, "I once was lost but now am found." That is NOT the same thing as meaning that Lori Hacking's remains were Lost but now Found.

I'm sorry, it was a mistake on my part.

It took them 7 hours from when they found a body to identify her. It is so sad that all this was done because he couldn't tell the truth.

I pray that Lori's parents and family can now rest a bit easier knowing she has being found and can now have a proper resting place.

I can only hope her husband will be tried sooner than later and the family can begin to heal.

...something I heard on the news some time ago, the Family of Lori has already had a Memorial Service for her and did put a Headstone in a cemetery to be able to have a place to honor her and grieve for her*

Saw her brother on the news this morning. So sad to see the pictures of the machines going through the landfill. And she was pregnant too! They can finally have some peace, and hopefully justice for her murderer.

Re:UPDATE: Lori Hacking

And you are correct they did already have a Memorial Service for Lorie.

But as the mother said on the Oprah show.

"They did this because there was no body and they could not continue to wait to see if they would find her daughter's body. The job of finding her remains were so remote because of where she was dumped that they thought it would be better to have somewhere to go to say their goodbyes to her.

Now that they have her body I am sure they will have a proper Service for their daughter and grandchild.

I believe that FREAK of a husband she had will be charged with TWO murders now under the "Connor Law" from Laci's death.

What is the matter with these CREEPS, just LEAVE...go carry your sorry butts on & let the women live! AND THEIR BABIES!!!!!! :mad: :x

HD just wanted to let you know in case you missed it, Lori's mom is going to be on the Oprah show Monday, talking about her daughter. Won't tell you what the preview was in case you missed it.

This mother is amazing.

She is so strong for her daughter, does not matter that she is no longer with us her mom is going to make sure her daughter is honored and remembered.

Lori's Mother was on Oprah once and Oprah gave her $50,000. towards the scholarship fund the Mother wanted to start.
:) Is this going to be an Update to how much she has raised towards this fund? :unsure: Maybe? :unsure:

Thanks again. :)
