Happygirl....you are so funny!!!! :P

They would make you make eye contact with them!!!! :huh: :blink: :unsure:

If you like them so much you should know that they are there to help you...not to scare you or make you nervous!!!

:ohmy: :rolleyes: :laugh:

Eye contact is a funny thing. i am learning the cultural differences of respect for eye contact. I too would NOT be able to look iyanla and rhonda in the eye. Where i am from it is not respectful to make eye contact with authority figures or people you respect, especially when being guided or disaplined. Other places, it is disrespectful to look away from the person you are talking too...how confusing!!!
