
Dr. Stan Yes?/No?

Posted by Halfdollar - 2005/04/19 19:44

I am surprised that no one has mentioned at thing about yesterday's episode, 4/18, on the "Father Special."

I was impressed seeing him with his daughters and the openness of their relationships. That IS what is needed for Dads & Daughters.

The other thing that caught my eyeS was showing the pictures of the past of him! When he was younger! In one of them I thought he looked "HOT" for back in the day! I think he IS rather handsome right now so I say YES....

but he's not for me, so NO! I have heard babblings about him before so I KNOW someone is looking at him!!!

He does add to the scenery! YOU GO STAN THE MAN!

What do you think? is Dr. Stan "HOT" & "got it going on?" Or what?

I think Dr. Stan is cute. But I missed Monday's show so didn't see the pics. I'll take your word on him being cute back then though, HD! He's not bad looking now, for an older man.

Sure he's cute and I loved the way he connected with his daughters. I realize this is a sow about women, but I would have like to see how he is with his son as well...perhaps a special episode when men inhabit the house???

compassionate and.....okay he really cute and really hot.....Yeah HD I liked looking at the photos of him ...who said he

We're not talkin' John Davidson are we?

Dr. Stan...

HE'S DA MAN!!!

Payenanny & Netty: I would have to believe that "John" is to hugs4u2 what John Davidson is to Cassie!

No, maybe that isn't such a great analogy!

It's Huggie's Hubby! :laugh:

Handsome & Beauty...

For me seeing someone's Looks & calling them HOT or IT or Handsome or Beautiful... coincides with their Personality, Attitude & the Likes!

I have said Dr. Stan is not 'my type' (some of you know that!) BUT I do believe He IS HOT & IT for SOMEONE! He is GREAT TO LOOK AT... and along those lines, is because of what I see in other parts of him- his personality, gentleness, success - just being Him!

Now, I can say that about another person in the house right now, "Princess Tessie" that she came in thinking she was! I at first sight believed her to be a great-looking woman! Until I saw her ways & her mouth! Her ATTITUDE! I never looked twice at her again! UNTIL I saw her sitting w/Dr. Stan (DA MAN!) and she was humbled, tearful, and I think being honest...that day I again saw her "Beauty."

You know what I mean? jelly bean???

OK, enough about that subject...let's move on.... :P
