The new season starts September 13, 2004. Throughout the summer they are going to show reruns with the ladies coming back to narrate it!

I am sooo diappointed that I have to wait until September to see the new shows! :(I just started watching the show a few months ago, and I liked it so much that I watch every day!! I don't want to wait all summer to find out things-like who the father of Josie's baby is etc...Why can't they keep going all summer? :mad:
