The lady from the previous show with the GROSS home, is still getting it together so she can keep up with normal cleaning. But this way of living is an ILLNESS called "Obsessive Hoarding." I think she needs to be on OCD meds but I didn't hear mention of it. They are still telling her ways to keep it up!

She had a clean wastebasket but won't use it! for fear of having to clean it again! so she leaves what needs to go to trash on the counter to throw out when she goes! Now if that doesn't beat all!

I didn't get a chance to hear about the Gal that is hooked on Reality TV! I was HERE typing to tell others to watch!

OH, the lady in the other story, she had been held by gunpoint in a robbery at an insurance co. and he locked her in a room and two of her fingers got slammed in the door and she lost the tip to one of them! The Dude on there was a Doc or something and he said that is part of the reason she has this prob! How? does that tie in? Don't know!

The other way a lady that has a kid or two, ???, and a husband and he plans to D-I-V-O-R-C-E her if she doesn't clean up her act!

Ha! to say the least, the house was a pigsty! I didn't hear how she was going to do it ---- had someone at the door so that's all she wrote!!!

Really, she why I could NEVER write Recaps!!! :-)

Halfdollar

OH, but I think I taped the end of it since someone came in and if I did, I will tell you about the last lady! :-o

Hey....

I'm still not convinced that Carol is an obsessive Hoarder. She didn't seem to have the issues as the other Hoarders. I didn't hear Carol mention that she was keeping these things for protection like other Hoarders say. Carol seems to have too much stuff because she doesn't remember to put things away or get some overwhelmed by them that her brain just shuts down and she leaves them.

To me she shows a lot more signs of Adult ADD and Anxiety. I'm really upset that this so called expert didn't refer her to a professional for a thorough evaluation so she could get on medication and begin a comprehensive treatment plan.

What ever the diagnosis is Carol needs more help than Oprah and the show tried to give her.

Tom Cruise brings Katie Holmes on 'Oprah'

Posted by netty - 2005/05/20 21:31

Talk-show host declares him 'gone' over his new girlfriend

NEW YORK - Tom Cruise is absolutely gaga over Katie Holmes — and isn't afraid to show it.

On Monday's episode of "The Oprah Winfrey Show," which was taped, Cruise goes backstage to reveal a surprise — Holmes herself.

A smitten Cruise prompts Winfrey to exclaim over and over, "You're gone!"

"I've known Tom a long time and he has always been so private. I've never seen him like this before — he's gone," Winfrey says.

The 42-year-old actor and Holmes, 26, were first photographed together in Rome last month. In a recent interview on "Access Hollywood," Cruise gushed that Holmes is "magnificent."

Cruise was previously married to Mimi Rogers and Nicole Kidman. Holmes and actor Chris Klein recently called off their engagement, after dating for five years.

Both have summer blockbusters opening next month. Cruise stars in Steven Spielberg's "War of the Worlds" and Holmes co-stars with Christian Bale in "Batman Begins."

Bandita Sista hsmom!

You made me LAUGH last night when I read your posts!!!

Why is it you don't like OPRAH?....

because she is rebuilding South Africa with Schools for the Poor, Starving South African Children?

or is it.....

because SHE has DONATED 10 Million DOLLARS out of HER POCKET towards the Rebuilding of Katrina???

or is it.....

because She is having JON BON JOVI on her show today, another Person who happens to be a Rock Star, and a SUCCESSFUL one, that is Encouraging GIVING....

off-hand I don't know the Organization(s) Jon participates in but he did sing with Richie Sambora who is Heather Locklear's husband on the concert that had to do with the ONE.org Campaign ..... to END Poverty!

OH! the Dude in my Avatar hsmom is KID ROCK! who I saw this Summer in Concert! I did mention on the site somewhere that KID donated HIS own plane to fly goods down to the suffering People that have been displaced by Hurrigan Katrina!

**It's ALL GOOD hsmom, the looks of the People don't matte to me .... their GOODNESS does!

God bless you Bandita!

First I want to say to hsmom, that above post didn't come out like I meant it to.... I was laughing when I read your post about not liking Oprah.... but when I posted it didn't come out right and I apologize for that. I did want to state some of the things that Oprah is doing that stuck out in my mind.

BON JOVI was AWESOME!
They sang & the audience screamed! ha!

For real... Jon handed a check at the end of the show that was from all the Band Members that was for ONE MILLION DOLLARS! to go towards her ANGEL NETWORK! She stated that that is the most one-time Donation she had ever received for the Angel Network! Cool!

JON is such a GIVING-PERSON, he and his wife. They showed where he had gone to a school (didn't hear where - someone help out here??) and he gave them all a present to open which was clothing from THE GAP! and $300. Gift Certificates for clothes from THE GAP!

They also received Backpacks filled with School Supplies and each got a Computer but I forgot where those were from. Although some of these items were Donated thru Companies, Jon does alot of the spending himself.

BON JOVI is started a WORLD TOUR & all the peeps in the audience gets tickets to go! shucks! And part of proceeds from one of the songs on the new CD will be donated to Katrina Relief Fund.

YOU ROCK BON JOVI!!!!!!
