Rain was Great!

I loved how Rain was making Josie really think about things yesterday. She wouldn't just let her give "I don't know" and "because" type answers. I sure hope that she can talk some sense into Josie. She of all people in the house can tell Josie how hard it is going to be trying to raise a baby on her own.

Rain has always amazed me, I have seen her grow so much. I am so proud of her. When she took Josie into the bathroom and made her take a good long look at her I was so proud of her. I knew Rain would make Josie take a good long look at her self and Rain would be the person that would do it.

Also, have you seen her? I saw a quick shot of her in the past week and OMG she looks absolutely fab! She looks so good. Her life in Chicago must really be agreeing with her. Keep it up Rain, you look great! :laugh: :laugh:
With love to all of you, Joyce
