Thank you Tara for starting this site. I just found it and I think it is great! I am very disappointed that they are closing the startingovertv site for the summer. One of the things I liked about that site is that it had areas that gave information of where the women are now and what they are up to. Also, there were links to any websites that the women have started. If that could be included in this site it would be terrific. Thanks again.

Kate :)

The women's sites are listed here in both the link section in the main menu and at the top each of the women's forums.

Hi Tara I just wanted to tell you that you have a great site. It's very easy to use and I like talking to people about all types of things not just the show. Which brings me to my question. Would you mind adding politics in the mix. Being election year, and this my first year that I can vote. I would like to learn about peoples views. You can call it Election 2004. Or you can decide. Well thanks for reading this.

Hi Tara. Like the site.It is easy to use and the people posting are much mellower and kinder than the original one! What is going to happen after the 2nd Season starts?
The only real problem has been the chat room which I am sure you have been informed of.
Thanks.I love Staring Over! B)
