
RAIN, RAIN...

yea, I remember I was so 'put out' by Rain's behavior at the beginning of her stay that I wrote on the message board, "Rain, Rain Go Away!" I was amazed at her arrogance & demanding ways with the other Houseguests. But I came around with her...she has HEART. And she did end up showing it, how she interacted with the Women eventually. I, too, should have had Patience with her, knowing what's it's like on the 'bottom of the heap' and the struggle to get to the surface for air!

You Go Girl! Hope she & girls are all well. :)

This is the first message I've read that has made me feel better!
The girls are great. Today is SyMone's birthday, she is 12!
