Are you watching season 1? When Josie is pregnant?

I remember part of her story was trying to figure out what to do and whether to give her baby up for adoption or try to raise her herself. Also to find out who was the father.

She also came back to SO2 and came back for a short visit (a day or so) earlier in SO3.

If you want more feedback, it might be helpful which SO season are your referring to. Since you mention adoption, I thought you might be talking about season 1... But then when you mention the baby and it's age...(yours or hers..) I think maybe Season 2..
