DON'T GO FURTHER IF YOU DON'T WANT TO READ STUFF GOING ON IN THE HOUSE THAT HAS NOT BEEN AIRED:

I'm glad someone got another thread going..things are getting good in the house. BB "haunted" the houseguests the other night. Erika was sitting at the counter in the kitchen and saw an "illusion" of who she thought was Allison hovering with a flashlight under her face. Throughout the night other past hg were spotted, Bunky and possibly Nicole. They showed up as orange-ish images and freaked out several of the houseguests..lol. According to what someone posted from a CBS release past houseguests will be returning to help out with competitions in the coming week.

I hope the ones in the house are paying attention to the "clues" they are being given.:whistle:

Loved Georges look!! And the hairy chest just made the outfit! He's the clown for sure! :p

How many questions did you get right? Do you think that Howie's button was stuck or he just didn't push hard enough--I thought he was going to "pitch a fit"!! I think he "meant" to hit it but just didn't push hard enough!! Interesting to see Erika being HOH! She doesn't seem to have any real alliances there.....but I could be wrong and being fooled!!

So sad Kaysar had to leave on his Birthday----and they didn't even have a cake for him---how rude!!

Oh well, now we wait til Sunday!!:dry:

Oh Erika definitely has "alliances" in the house. She's very sneaky and they better watch out.

They are apparently having to redo the HOH comp because of some malfunctioning with the buzzers. It will be done TONIGHT. SO HOH has not been determined yet!!

Are they showing it on TV or are we going to have to wait?
Think it is because of Howies buzzer? Who knows....guess we will find out!!
