It says that we should call the production company at 818-756-5100 and/or the direct programming number for NBC at 818-840-6046.

Just in case this is another number that Christie got inside info to call I decided to put it on the sticky as well.

Thank you Hershey :)

Please use the number provided by Tara first, if the mailbox is full.. keep trying as they do clean it out periodically, and we have gotten through at different times as they do. Keep the calls going ladies.. it's not too late!

The woman who answered the phone at BM 818-756-5100 was no help at all. I asked her a few questions and all she could tell me was the show is no longer in production.

Has anybody else talked to her?
