Did anyone catch the Today Show today and yesterday? I was only able to see bits and pieces, but I never seemed to see Meredith. Was she on the show the last 2 days?

:(Sorry, Debby, I think I am the only person in the world that doesn't belong to the Meredith Vierra fan club. I really like Anne Curry and some of the other folks there at NBC that didn't even get a chance at being Katie's replacement so I don't watch the show at all. I really like Diane Sawyer and the folks at GMA so I probably won't see the Today Show at all anymore.
