I know this was chatted about in misc.. I thought the show was going to be on Friday nights... I saw it Friday night..and surprised to see that tonight (Monday they appear to be showing the same episode again!)....

Maybe another program bombed and they are using it as a filler or it's an encore!

Good show.. Excellent write up in the tvguide about it.

I saw this show last night for the first time... it may be my last. Everyone seemed to be jumping into bed with creepy partners. Ugh... is the only word I can think of for this cast of men. LOL
