
Today on Dr. Phil 11/05/2006

Anyone watching Dr Phil. You have a lady on tv that owns over 200 cats. In five years she spent 40 thousands dollars on these cats. That's a lot of money, and ridiculous I understand that she's a CAT LOVER but that is going a little over board don't you think? The smell in her house I could just not image PHEWWWWW nor would I walk into her house.

How would you feel if you had someone like that living next door to you.. Mind you she does live on 10 acre property. But the law in her state says she is only allowed to have maximum of 4.

Nadia, that really is so sad. She does need help, I agree. But ASPCA will come and take all the cats and determine whether to fine and or charge her with anything or not. It's just not healthy for anyone involved!

Anyone that wants a lot of critters really should go thru proper channels and get liscensing for them and/or open a legal shelter. That way they actually can get more help financially to support the critters in a healthy way too. I'd love to that someday for injured wild birds.....in time, maybe I will!!

I have to agree with her neighbors the cats should go, would not want to live next door to her, the phone calls she made was threatening them.

I wouldnt want to live near this lady also with all those cats I'm sure they are into other peoples back yards.

I wonder.. are all these 200 cats house trained.. can you just imagine??? the poop everywhere!
