Sommer

I am Sommer's Mother and just decided to check on this web site as I am really missing her today. Sommer and her boyfriend Adam, just left from visiting for the Holidays and I am feeling a little of the empty nest syndrome. She said the show just started airing in Israel and she has received some nice mail.

For anyone who is interested she is doing great and living in San Diego. She is doing great with her weight and getting her life on track and most of all she is happy. I keep telling her my thoughts for her are said very well in the song "I Hope You Dance" She really is "Dancing" these days and very happy. Thank all of you for your warm thoughts and prayers for her!

Thank you for the update Dyanne. We have been following many of the SO ladies blogs ... and it was obvious from her blog that Sommer was doing very well...

Dyanne, thanks for the update on Sommer. Speaking of dancing...I will never forget Sommer and her challenge to learn that dance routine and perform it in public. She did it in record time too! I tried to put myself in her place and even though I love to dance, I don't know how I would have reacted to competing with professional dancers. She did great!

She really worked hard at the SOH. Dr. Stan especially was very impressed with Sommer. She definitely earned my admiration.

I'm glad to hear she is doing well. I would just love to see a SO follow up special that highlights the lives of the graduates since their graduation from the house.

Please give Sommer my best wishes.

Aw mom!! I just saw this - can you believe it?! I'm not on here much, if at all, but I got an email and decided to check it out for the first time in a long time. Would figure I would read this right after Mother's Day when we are missing each other so much!! Still happy with Adam and life in general in San Diego, but I'm missing you and Dad tons! If I could just get home more often, I don't think this would be so hard! I love you!!! Just thought you might want to see it here! :) Since you never check your MySpace! :)
