I tried to tune in at 1:48 est...and think I missed it.. You're time stamp on the site.. is 13:26 (thereabouts)... so I think maybe the time stamps are wrong.. Not sure if it's on SOT's end or my end.. PST is 3 hours behind us.. so obviously I missed it..

Anyone give me a clue how to fix the timestamp if it's on my end?

PS: My time stamp should say 13:50 and not 14:50...

I'll look around in my 'details'..

KPW, You can just go to the link and they have it on tape, so you can listen to it at your leisure. I didn't listen to it very long. I got bored.
