VH1 Celebrity Rehab looks like it's going to be really bad! However I bet it will be quite entertaining. Is anybody planning on watching it in January?

I think that one of the girls who was on that show didn't do well and was recently arrested for a probation violation. Dr. Drew who hosts the show said she was really bad. She was on American Idol at one time, but didn't win.

I happened to see this show the other night. Just stumbled on it..

I can guess who the bad girl was...

Jeff Conway was really messed up. It was obvious he'd smuggled some drugs into the place.. They wound up calling the rescue squad..

If he doesn't straighten up I expect that we'll be hearing about another early death before long on the news.

Jeff Conway was messed up when he was on Celebrity Fit Club.. Daniel Baldwin is also in the house..

I don't know if this show is a good idea.. Some of the girls especially seem to be looking for their 5 minutes of fame. There isn't supposed to be any sexual contact between the various participants and a couple of the girls are flaunting and teasing..

I only saw 1 show which seemed to be the premiere and the end of that Daniel Baldwin was complaining to the Dr. about the others behavior. Amazingly he seemed one of the most sober ones there! The Dr. looked like he was wondering what in the heck has he gotten himself into! Oh the mighty buck$.... Did he really think this was going to be educational? or was he exploiting his clients?

I love this show I think daniel Baldwin knows he has no choice and has to get with his program... To see Jeff Conway so bad off is truly heartbreaking but i watch it every time it is on. So who knows I think iT will be intersting to see who makes it thru the 3 weeeks of Detox...

I think I'm all caught up...

Like watching a train wreck... Can't help but get sucked in.

Jeff is finally starting to sober up...and Daniel is now going nuts.. He just left but apparently not before being really bad... If the previews are right.. one of the girls are saying that he was sending here text messages and pictures of himself..

I think he wanted out of there because he knew he was headed for trouble.. He comes across as a hypocrit!

I wonder if Dr. Drew is sorry he undertook this project. He may have bit off more than he can chew!

The show wasn't as bad as I thought it was going to be.

I wound up enjoying it for the most part. I saw the Dr. and Briggette, Jessica and Seth on Tyra one day.. (I think it was Tyra..)

Last night VH1 aired the reunion episode. It was an hour and a half long and was a good wrap up of the season. I appreciated the journey they had all gone through at that point.. and could definitely see some major improvements regarding their 'behaviors'.. They seemed to be pretty honest about their struggles with sobriety. There were some unexpected success stories..

If you missed the reunion special, they will probably show the reunion special several more times this next week... It might be a show worth having a marathon sometime soon to watch the progression of their behaviors.

I think they accomplished their goal... It was enlightening.. I wasn't so sure any of them were going to 'get it'....
